

Life Story

“The Dash”

A man stood up to eulogize his friend. He begins by saying, “In every cemetery on every tombstone there is a date of birth and a date of death...but the life that was lived was the dash in between”. (Paraphrased)

For many years this story was written in the newspaper obituaries. But as the cost has increased, the story has decreased to just their name. Are we putting the “dash”, your loved ones “Life Story” in that grave, between the dates, never to be told?

Our Solution

“Life Story” at brewerfuneral.com. As part of our service your loved ones “Life Story” can be placed on our site. Like an obituary it will include:

Picture

Name: _____ Age: _____ Of: _____
 Passed Away: _____ At: _____
 He/She was born in: _____
 Came here years go: _____ From: _____
 Predeceased by: Name (Relation): _____

 Survived by: (i.e. spouse, child, parent, niece/nephew, etc.);
 Name, Relation, City/State: _____

Friends will received on: (Day & Date): _____
 At (Time): _____ at the _____ chapel of Brewer & Sons
 Funeral Home
 _____ service will be held at (Location) _____
 At (Date & Time) _____
 Officiant/Celebrant: _____
 Will be laid to rest at the _____ cemetery following the service.
 In lieu of flowers, donations to: _____

Services And Celebration of Life

The “Life Story” is all those things that make your loved one special such as:

Organizations & Background:
 Religion – Schools – Military – Worked At – Retired From – Unions – Clubs – Lodges – Recognitions –
 Special Interest – Hobbies

Memories:
 Special Memories – Hobbies – etc.

So, gather with your family, tell the stories, and start typing. Once complete email the story to our office so we can copy and paste it to our website.

Once on our site your family and friends can add condolences, upload pictures, and send the link via social sites such as Facebook and Twitter, as well as send it via email or print it out.

We can also produce a video tribute with photos and music that can be played during services or just reviewed by visitors to the Life Story.

Let’s tell that story!